Data Protection Acts - collection and use of personal information

The information you provide to Us when you report an accident/make a claim will be collected and used by Us to process your claim. Allianz p.l.c. is the data controller in respect of all such information, and references to We and Us in this statement shall be construed accordingly.

USES. Information you supply may be used for the purposes of insurance administration (including processing, claims handling, reinsurance and fraud prevention) by Us, our agents, our reinsurers, and any intermediary acting for you. In assessing any claims made, We may undertake checks against publicly available information such as electoral roll, court judgements, bankruptcy or repossessions.

DISCLOSURE. We may share with our agents and service providers, members of the Allianz Group, other insurers and their agents, and with any intermediary acting for you, and with recognised trade, governing, and regulatory bodies (of which We are a member or by which We are governed), information We hold about you and your claims history. This includes Insurance Link, the Irish Insurance Federation's anti-fraud claims matching database. We may in certain circumstances use private investigators to investigate a claim.

SENSITIVE DATA. We may need to collect sensitive data relating to you (such as medical or health record or condition, convictions etc.) in order to administer your claim. By your signature you signify your consent to such information being used, processed and disclosed by Us, our agents and other insurers for the purposes of insurance administration (including processing, claims handling, reinsurance and fraud prevention).

RETENTION. Under the Consumer Protection Code we are obliged to retain your records for 6 years from the date your claim is settled. In certain circumstances we will retain your information for longer periods if this is required under specific insurance legislation.

CONSENT. By providing Us with your information and by your signature you consent to all of your information being used, processed, disclosed and retained for the purposes of insurance administration (including processing, claims handling, reinsurance and fraud prevention).

CALL RECORDING. Calls may be recorded or monitored for regulatory, training and quality purposes.
